1 THE DEFENDANT: I took an educated guess and
2 issued $20 million in credit to this Court, which it
3 violates its own statutes. And I'd also like to say
4 that the unlawful venue -- I've never seen a case be 5 brought in two different states in two different venues
6 in violation -- you are up there today reading statutes,
7 18 USC this and naming them off when that lady was on 8 the stand, but yet when I name the statute 18 USC 3232
9 that tells that all proceedings must be held within the 10 district of the alleged offense, but yet you take me to 11 Maine. As I read that statute, it's now frivolous. So 12 you pick and choose what statute you want to abide by.
13 You're biased. You're partial. You don't care about 14 justice. All you care about is getting a conviction on 15 the defendant -- which let the record reflect that I'm 16 holding up the title to the trust account, which is the 17 defendant. All you care about is getting this 18 commercial lien on this defendant so you can raid that 19 trust account and issue your penal bonds and your Miller
20 Act bonds and sell them to the Corrections Corporation
21 of America who underwrites them through banks and sells 22 them on the stock market for millions and millions of 23 dollars. That's what's going on here.
